Mari Cordes was one of our special guests. She is not only a Nurse Practitioner but also a Legislator from Lincoln, Addison County. See her Web Site information: About Mari Cordes. She is a passionate advocate for accessibility issues and promises to stay engaged in the issues facing our clients.

Tips Shared by Mari:

- Encourage membership to reach out to their lawmakers, representatives. Have your asks
- Go to the house and meet with them.
- Specific members, committees need to hear from this community
- Be aware of "Because it's always been done that way" thinking
- Meet, have:
 - Handouts
 - Stories
 - On legislative Web Page, there are committee assistants that can be contacted for meets or go straight to the chair
 - Follow up after meetings
- Issues are decided on in the beginning of session. If concern is brought up after "Crossover" day, won't make it until the next session.
- The sessions run on a Biennium basis. We are at the beginning on one right now.
- An Accessibility Assessment is currently being done. After that, it would be a good time to approach.
- Sara Coffey is the chair of Transportation
- Social Equity Conference created a document, "Probing Questions". She will share with us to use as a prototype for us to create.
- Priorities right now, it looks like Housing is on the top of the list, childcare, looking back how money we got from ARPA & COVID is being used.
- Reports can be found on the Web Site.
- We asked her to send information to us via Janice and we so appreciated her time and work. Her text number is: 802-989-9267
