- Help people with disabilities who live in Vermont prepare for, obtain, and maintain meaningful employment and pursue careers
- Help employers recruit, train, and retain employees with disabilities

Welcome to VocRehab!

BARRE

What is VocRehab?

- VocRehab is a voluntary program through the Agency of Human Services that supports individuals with disabilities to find and maintain employment and pursue careers
- VocRehab Counselors will work with you to identify jobs that are a good fit based on your previous work history, training, and interest areas

Eligibility

Jobs & Careers

To be Eligible for VocRehab Services...

- You must have:
 - A chronic health or mental health condition that impacts your ability to find or maintain a job
- Your VocRehab Counselor will work with you to request medical information or other documentation that will help you qualify for our services
- Income and/or resources do not impact your ability to receive services

Jobs & Careers

- VocRehab works with all consumers to help them plan in both the short and long term
- We are here to help you find a job that pays the bills, along with helping you explore possible career paths that match your interests and may lead you to earning a higher wage

VR & VABIR Work Together

- VABIR (Vermont Association of Business Industry and Rehabilitation) partners with VocRehab to provide you with individualized supports to help you meet your employment goal
- VABIR Employment Consultants are housed in the same office space as your VR Counselor
- Employment Consultants work with businesses in your community to identify job openings and potential training opportunities that could be a fit for you and your goals and will help you apply for and connect to any of them that you are interested in

CreativeWorkforceSolutions

An initiative of the Agency of Human Services

- CWS is designed to bring together local employment programs to help connect businesses and job seekers
- CWS teams work together to share labor market information, connect with interested businesses, and develop jobs and careers for people living in Vermont
- VocRehab and VABIR are both partners with CWS

Department of Labor

- VocRehab partners with the Department of Labor (DOL), another great resource for job seekers
- VocRehab and VABIR staff will often help participants connect to their local DOL office and create an account with their job search database called JobLink
- Some local employers will host hiring events at their local DOL office
- DOL may coordinate apprenticeship and training opportunities that could be a match for you

Partnering with Agency Of Education

- The Agency of Education (AOE) isn't just here to support students in elementary or high school. AOE works with a number of other educational providers to offer a wide range of education and training opportunities to youth and adults
- Your VocRehab Counselor will work with you to determine if any continuing education options may be a good fit to help you reach your employment goal

- Create or update your resume
- Develop cover letters specific to jobs you and your team have identified
- Use practice interviews to improve your skills

Exploring Career Paths

VocRehab and VABIR partner with you to determine what types of work or training may be a good fit using a number of different tools...

- Career Assessments - VocRehab counselors have access to a number of online, paper and pencil, hands on and other forms of assessments that can help direct you to careers that match your interests and strengths
- Progressive Employment - short-term placement opportunities that allow you to try out a new work scenario, build valuable skills and experience, and show an employer what you can do
- Progressive Education - many of us haven't been in a classroom or training situation in quite some time but know that more education or training could help us earn more money. Progressive education gives you a chance to test out what continuing education might look like with no commitment

Career Assessments

Why Assessments?

You may be unsure of what type of work you might like to do. Some reasons include:

- Limited work experience
- An injury or illness that prevents you from doing work you had in the past
- The desire to try something new

In these situations, VocRehab and VABIR staff can offer you a chance to take one or more career assessments to help guide your next steps.
